DEATHS.

WHEATLEY.—Prof. J. B. Wheatley died at Paintsville on Sunday, Oct. 16, 1904. He was proprietor of one of the hotels.

MARK.—M. B. Mark, aged about 48, a prominent and influential citizen of Morehead died on Monday morning, Oct. 17, 1904. For many years he has been a merchant.

CONLEY.—Attorney Ben Conley died Saturday afternoon, Oct. 15, 1904, at his home in Paintsville, of typhoid fever. He was 45 years old, and leaves an invalid wife and four children. He was a good man always just and upright.

KASH.—After several months of severe suffering Robert Kash, son of Mrs. J. W. Cravens, died at his home in Hazel Green on Monday night, Oct. 24, 1904. The burial will be at Hazel Green this (Wed) afternoon. Recently he and his wife moved to Hazel Green from McCausey, where for a few years he had been a prosperous merchant. More than a year ago he married Miss Maude Davis, of Frenchburg. On Tuesday, Oct. 18, they buried an infant. He was an Odd Fellow, member of Menefee Lodge at Frenchburg. We are informed that the burial will be under the auspices of that order and that a large delegation from Frenchburg will attend. To his wife and mother and brother, Wm. Kash, we extend our sympathy.

VOTE FOR PARKER.

Mr. Bryan tells his free-silver followers in Indiana that the money question is not an issue in this campaign, graver problems being up for settlement. He urges them to support Parker and Davis that the country might be freed from the control of the trusts and that the burden of imperialism may be lifted from the people.

Presbyterians.

At the meeting of the Synod of the Northern Presbyterian church in Danville last week Dr. John Barbour, of Maysville, was made Moderator. There were present about ninety delegates and the feature of the meeting was the inauguration of Dr. Hinnett as President of Central University. While Dr. Blanton was in line of promotion he was not in it when a President was chosen. The synod of the Southern church in session at Shelbyville rushed its business through and went to Danville and participated in the inaugural ceremonies.

The Southern Synod by the will of Mrs. Sallie Grundy has a farm of 600 acres and equipments amounting in cash to $10,000, which made it possible to establish a second orphanage in Kentucky.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Scobee, of near Stepstone, entertained last Wednesday evening with a "husking bee" in honor of Miss Bertha Tapp, of St. Joseph, Mo., who is visiting relatives and friends in the county. There was present from the town and neighborhood about fifty. The reception room was adorned with products of the farm—a shock of fodder in one corner, bundles of oats in another, floor covered with hay, and pumpkins with ghost-like faces scattered around the home promiscuously, which made those from the rural districts feel very much at home and those from town like birds just out of a cage. Mr. and Mrs. Scobee and assistants spared neither time nor trouble in showing the young people a good time. Delightful refreshments were served. So much were all enjoying themselves that the hour of night was forgotten and it was near morning before they too their departure, realizing that the occasion and the hospitality of the Scobee home would not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. K. O. Clarke is having a fine trade.
